

Les Hemstock

Les Hemstock has been involved in the entertainment industry his entire life. He built his reputation as one of the UK's leading producers and live performance DJs leading to his eventual worldwide hit records as 'Jive Bunny and The Mastermixers' and 'Hemstock & Jennings'.

During his career throughout Europe, Les had over 200 mixes featured on the exclusive music production services Music Factory and Disco Mix Club (DMC), building his reputation as one of the biggest DJs and Producers across Europe which would eventually culminate in the massive worldwide hit concept, Jive Bunny and the Mastermixers.

During his success as Jive Bunny, Les toured the world and featured on hundreds of radio stations, TV shows and in magazine features, awarding him Best DJ and Best producer, as well as a male model feature in the national newspapers! Les received Silver, Gold and Platinum awards for his work in the music industry, with a highly prestigious triple platinum album award from the BPI.

Following his success, Les toured Europe, residing in Norway and Germany for 8 years before returning to the UK to follow his ambitions to that of a successful dance music DJ and producer. The successful collaboration with music Composer/Producer Chris Jennings culminated in further Top 20 International hits including "Nothing But You" which featured singer and TV star Kym Marsh with a remix by world famous DJ Paul Van Dyk from Germany who signed the song as a collaborative effort for his new album.

As well as various club chart hits and remixes, Les promoted his own club night called "Gold & Delicious" which won a prestigious 3rd place in the British Music industries new promoter of the year awards in 1999. During this period Les also featured as guest DJ with various BBC Radio 1 shows including; Judge Jules show and Fergie with his live performances from Ibiza, Miami and direct from the BBC's London studio's. This profile led to Les performing for the worlds biggest club events including Gatecrasher, Gods Kitchen, Escape, Slinky, Planet Love and Holland's huge Dance Valley event to crowds of over 50,000, building an International reputation in many countries that includes the United States, Canada, Malaysia, China, Holland, Germany, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Spain, New Zealand and more!.