

MARK SHERRY

Scotland has long been a leader in producing pioneers of electronic dance music, but often flies under the radar in its contributions to the scene. Until now. As Scottish techtrance maestro Mark Sherry's star continues to rise, the DJ and producer is being recognized as a dedicated and enthusiastic presence in the industry, with original productions and remixes on Spinnin', Armada, Lange Recordings & Anjunabeats. His inexorable passion and drive for his craft is evident in his diverse and well-rounded collaborations and full body of work, both in the studio as well as his vivid and technical DJ performances spanning the globe.

One by one, the top dance music labels in the industry have noticed Mark's ability to generate high quality productions, and in 2011 Spinnin' Records signed him on for an exclusive two year contract. With huge support from the mega label, he released his remake of the Last of the Mohicans theme and Clannad classic 'I Will Find You' featuring vocalist Sharone, who Mark later teamed up with again to orchestrate 'Silent Tears' and a Latin American themed track titled 'Sangre Caliente.' The following months saw more Beatport chart-topping compositions from his remixes of 'Morph' by Ali Wilson & Matt Smallwood on Doorn Records and 'Yeke Yeke' by African artist Mory Kante, and another Beatport Trance No. 1 for his take on trance legend Lange's single 'Songless.' The Scot continued to make a name for himself in 2012 with yet another Beatport Top 10 for his stellar single 'My Love' on Simon Patterson's Night Vision label. In the year's following, Mark kept up with his busy schedule both in and out of the studio. He unveiled his well supported remix of Max Graham's 'The Evil ID,' which quickly shot straight to Beatport's Trance Top 10. Mark is a regular at events like Together Festival, Luminosity Beach Party, Electocity Presents FSOE 350, and 420 Festival. Mark Sherry's own Outburst Records label was set to support his own tracks but has homed huge tracks from dance legends across the world including Tiesto, Stephen Kirkwood & David Forbes to name a few.

Mark Sherry has released his trance/tech-trance productions and remixes on an impressive array of labels such as Reset (Spinnin), Doorn, Captivating Sounds (Armada), Anjunabeats & Lange to hand pick a few. His finely tuned production skills have been constantly impressing the 'who's-who' of the EDM scene, especially Lange after Mark's remix of his classic 'Songless' single went to number 1 on Beatport! Not forgetting his recent uber-slick remix of the classic Mory Kante 'Yeke Yeke' plus bootleg remixes of Coldplay 'Paradise' and Chase & Status feat Liam Bailey 'Blind Faith'.

Mark is a longstanding member of the 23rd Precinct Music team - an exceptional musician, producer and artist. Most recently Mark's track 'Lighting Fires' - a collaboration with Christina Novelli was featured on the Channel 4 reality series 'Celebrity Hunted'.

Mark Sherry's highly anticipated album 'Confirm Humanity' was released in 2019 on Black Hole Recordings. A masterful blend of Trance and new form dance music designed to take listeners to dizzying heights. The Confirm Humanity tour has taken Mark across the world including Amsterdam, Stockholm, Seattle, Vancouver, Sydney, Prague and Bangkok to name a few destinations.

LISTEN TO CONFIRM HUMANITY

"In this debut album quest, Mark's been flanked by a cadre of co-producers from his Outburst Records universe and beyond. Richard Durand, David Forbes, Tempo Giusto, Vlind, Mallorca Lee and others joined him in the studio, ultimately assisting in the serving of 18 desk-fresh tracks. It also involved the remixing of legends like Tiësto and the vocal talents of Marcella Woods, Christina Novelli & others, sitting thought-provoking songs amongst its floor roasting instrumentals"
